Showcasing iSkills

Hannah Bennett

Lorna Hector
Have you ever wondered how to make ESSENTIAL information INTERESTING?
Have you ever wondered how to make ESSENTIAL information INTERESTING?

How many of you have had urgent requests for training that you can’t do?
STUDYING

RESOURCES

SEARCHING

EVALUATING

REFERENCING

PLAGIARISM

COPYRIGHT
Introduction to Referencing

By the end of this module you will be able to correctly reference resources that you have used in your studies. This 5-10 minute module combines information with practical activities to check your understanding.
WHYREFERENCEACTIVITY

Drag and drop the words to their meaning.

Citation
The way you refer to the texts in your work

Reference list
The book, journal, or website you have used for research

Bibliography
A style of organising and displaying your citations and references

Source
A full alphabetical list of all the material you have used including those used for information but not cited directly in your work

Harvard Referencing
An alphabetical list of each citation you have used

SUBMIT
WHY REFERENCE ACTIVITY

Drag and drop the words to their meaning.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Citation</th>
<th>Source</th>
<th>Harvard Referencing</th>
<th>Bibliography</th>
<th>Reference list</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The way you refer to the texts in your work</td>
<td>The book, journal, or website you have used for research</td>
<td>A style of organising and displaying your citations and references</td>
<td>A full alphabetical list of all the material you have used including those used for information but not cited directly in your work</td>
<td>An alphabetical list of each citation you have used</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Correct

Well done, you matched all words to their meaning.
REFERENCING A BOOK

Before you set out a reference you need to find all the different parts. In a book you will normally find this on the front and back of the book's title page. Use the numbered buttons to find out more.
REFERENCING A BOOK

Before you set out a reference you need to find all the different parts. In a book you will normally look on the front and back of the book's title page. Use the numbers in the image, and more.

AUTHOR OF THE BOOK
This is the first part of your reference. Author/editor (surname followed by initials – when using editor followed by (ed.).

REFERENCING A BOOK

Before you set out a reference you need to find all the different parts. In a book you will normally look at the front and back of the book's title page. Use the numbers below for guidance.

---

BOOK TITLE
This is the next part. Title (in italics).

THANKS FOR COMPLETING THE COURSE

Introduction to using a Library

Good Luck and if you need help feel free to ask a member of LRC Staff!

RESTART COURSE  GIVE FEEDBACK
Draft, design, develop

- Script / storyboard
- Design interface, course elements
- Build in E-Learning Software
- Import into Moodle
- Test and refine
- Sign off
Design ideas

• Use an activity here?
• Mix it up
• Quick glance guide
• Top tips pages
• Use colour and images
Doing it

• Auto enrol students onto course
• Publicise / advertise
  • Plasma screens
  • Online banners / adverts
  • Staff / student announcements
• Monitor progress / completion
Developments

• Different levels
• Additional subjects
• Update your content
• Branding
• Advertise again
• iSkills Week
URL: http://moodletest.guildford.ac.uk
Username: lrc
Password: iskills
Course Title: iSkills Demo