

JISC Collections for FE

Ben Taplin, December 2012

- E-books for FE update
- E-books for Skills
- Primal Pictures
- Games project
- Future plans

- First stage (2009-): 3,000 titles, selected by FE, purchased by JISC Collections on national licence
- Second stage (2011-): further 60 core texts, to be paid for by JISC Collections on PDA model
- Third stage (2013-): new content, new business model, sustainability.
- Working closely with the FE community to select content

Extending free access to e-books to new learner community:

- Learners in the community (ACL)
- At work (WBL)
- Offenders

What is wanted?

What will suppliers provide?

Pilot project: core group of learning providers. Monitor usage; measure impact.

Hugh Look (hugh.look@jisc-collections.ac.uk)

icensed nationally by JISC Collections

Very enthusiastic response. 200 registrations since launch

Anatomy, physiology: healthcare, sports science, massage

5 concurrent users: to be reviewed

Our students are overjoyed with this resource and so are their teachers and tutors. They've said this will make a huge difference to the quality and knowledge contained within their work."

interactive educational software”. Supporting colleges, reducing costs, exploring workable business models.

Phase 1 (2012): report, commissioned by BIS

Phase 2 (2013): pilot project

- Skills2Learn
- Learning Lounge
- Games-Ed
- Stock Market Challenge
- SimVenture

available from JISC Collections website from 1st November 2012.

British Standards

Construction Information Service

Entered

Working Kindersley e-books

More e-textbooks , esp. from Pearson, and key FE texts

Also HE textbooks for foundation degrees.

Ben Taplin

Licensing Manager

JISC Collections

b.taplin@jisc-collections.ac.uk