Just starting

not even started

Making progress but still early

At the beginning - no policy, only the beginnings of a plan :)

Fairly early, but we have made a start!

Where are you currently on your OER journey?

We're in the early stages!

Where are you currently on your OER journey?

Starting to create an OER policy

Early / exploratory stage

starting to create a policy

starting to consider thinking about a plan for a plan.

Early - have delivered an OER workshop to academics and investigating Pressbooks

I don't know. We have it on library libguides on website

Do you think students had heard of OER before taking part in the topic session?
