

E-Journal Technical Update

Training Day Schedule

09:30	10:00	Arrival and refreshments
10:00	10:45	Taught Session 1 The History of E-Journals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identifying the major companies involved in e-journal provision The differences between gateways, aggregators, e-journal hosts, publisher web sites and search engine-based gateways
10:45	11:30	Taught Session 2 Access Control and User Authentication	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Definition of terms – access control, user authentication Organisational hierarchies User authentication methodologies IP address ranges, firewalls and proxies Access control methodologies Why gateways and publishers both have to know IP addresses
11:30	12:15	Hands-on Session 1 Organising Access to Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Practice at account set-up, IP address set-up and subscription set-up with major publisher and aggregator web sites
12:15	12:30	Summary and feedback
12:30	13:30	Lunch
13:30	14:30	Taught Session 3 Navigating Users to Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Which starting point for a user Linking from library web pages and OPACs Library web pages The rise of linking, including CrossRef and the DOI
14:30	15:15	Hands-on Session 2 Link Resolvers and SFX	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> SFX, MetaLib and other link servers Supporting services, e.g. Jake
15:15	15:30	Summary and feedback
15:30	15:55	Taught Session 4 Search Engines and Other Initiatives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Google Open Archives and Open Access Author web sites What publishers are doing to help librarians
15:55	16:00	Wrap-up and close	